Other (please state any other connection(s) on which you wish to rely)

- (please enter details below)

or

- no other proceedings in any court in England and Wales or elsewhere.

Part 5 The fact(s)

See the supporting notes for guidance on how to complete this section

I rely on the following fact(s) in support of my application:

In relation to a marriage:

Either the marriage is void because:

- The Petitioner and Respondent are within the prohibited degrees of relationship
- The Petitioner/Respondent was under the age of sixteen at the time of the marriage
- The Petitioner and Respondent have intermarried in disregard of certain requirements as to the formation of marriage
- At the time of the marriage the Petitioner/Respondent was already lawfully married or a civil partner
- In the case of a polygamous marriage entered into outside England and Wales, one party was at the time of the marriage domiciled in England and Wales or, the marriage is voidable because:

- The marriage was not consummated owing to the incapacity of the Petitioner/Respondent to consummate it (this will not apply to marriages of same sex couples)
- The marriage was not consummated owing to the wilful refusal of the Respondent to consummate it (this will not apply to marriages of same sex couples)
- The Petitioner/Respondent did not validly consent to its formation, whether in consequence of duress, mistake, unsoundness of mind or otherwise
- At the time of the marriage either party, though capable of giving a valid consent, was suffering (whether continuously or intermittently) from mental disorder within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1983 of such a kind or to such an extent as to be unfitted for marriage
- At the time of the marriage the Respondent was suffering from venereal disease in a communicable form
- At the time of the marriage the Respondent was pregnant by some person other than the Petitioner
- An interim gender recognition certificate under the Gender Recognition Act 2004 has, after the time of the marriage, been issued to either party to the marriage
- The Respondent is a person whose gender at the time of the marriage has become the acquired gender under the Gender Recognition Act 2004.

In relation to a civil partnership:

Either the civil partnership is void because:

- At the time when they entered the civil partnership the parties were not eligible to register as civil partners of each other under Chapter one (Section 3) of the Civil Partnership Act 2004
- At the time of the civil partnership the parties both knew that:
 - due notice of proposed civil partnership had not been given
 - the civil partnership certificate had not been duly issued
 - the civil partnership document was void under section 17(3) or 27(2) (registration after end of time allowed for registering)
 - the place of registration was a place other than specified in the notices (or notice) of proposed civil partnership and the civil partnership document
 - a civil partnership registrar was not present
 - that the place of registration was on premises that are not approved premises although the registration was purportedly in accordance with section 6(3A)
- The civil partnership document is void under paragraph 6(5) of Schedule 2 (civil partnership between a child and another person forbidden) or, the civil partnership is voidable because:

- The Petitioner or Respondent did not validly consent to the formation of the civil partnership (whether as a result of duress, mistake, unsoundness of mind or otherwise)
- At the time of the formation of the civil partnership either party, though capable of giving a valid consent, was suffering (whether continuously or intermittently) from mental disorder of such a kind or to such an extent as to be unfitted for civil partnership
- At the time of the formation of the civil partnership the Respondent was pregnant by some person other than the Petitioner
- An interim gender recognition certificate under the Gender Recognition Act 2004 has, after the time of the formation of the civil partnership, been issued to either civil partner
- The Respondent is a person whose gender at the time of the civil partnership had become the acquired gender under the Gender Recognition Act 2004 at the time of the formation of the civil partnership.
