Child(ren)'s Number(s):

Order

Transfer of proceedings to [the High Court] [a county court]
[a family proceedings court]
The Allocation and Transfer of Proceedings Order 2008

The full name(s) of the child(ren)

Date(s) of birth

The Court orders

that proceedings concerning the child[ren] are transferred to the [High Court] [county court] [family proceedings court]

because

- the transfer will significantly accelerate the determination of the proceedings;
- there is a real possibility of difficulty in resolving conflicts in the evidence of witnesses;
- there is a real possibility of conflict in the evidence of two or more experts;
- there is a novel or difficult point of law;
- there are proceedings concerning the child in another jurisdiction or there are international law issues;
- there is a real possibility that enforcement proceedings may be necessary and the method of enforcement or the likely penalty is beyond the powers of a magistrates' court;
- there is another good reason for the proceedings to be transferred, namely
